

ACTIVE INTRUDER TRAINING

How do we avoid and survive violence in the workplace or anywhere else?

Taught by former FBI Special Agent, Joe Malhoit, this workshop will teach participants how to identify, avoid, and survive a violent incident both in and outside of the workplace. Using practical tools and neuropsychology, Mr. Malhoit will teach participants how to recognize and prevent violent incidents, as well as how to respond when an incident "breaks bad".

Two Training Dates:

April 9: Long Term Care, Home Care, Hospice

April 24: Hospitals, Clinics, EMS, Public Health

Location: Shoreview Community Center

Time: 8:00am-12:00pm

Recommended Audience: frontline staff, leadership, emergency managers, security, support staff, and others

QUESTIONS: prepared@metrohealthready.org

Topics Covered:

Hardening and Preparing Facilities

Pre-indicators of Violence

The Neurology of Safety

De-escalation Techniques

FOR INFORMATION & REGISTRATION:

CLICK HERE